They have for it. oined in the publication of a card for public distribution, which contains a mall advertisement of each, with inormation regarding the town, and its various commercial and financial advantages, together with ten reasons why the people of the city and town should patronize the local merchants. These arguments are so well put that they are given in full for the benefit of any who may wish to follow unless it cures. their example. They are as follows: Because: You examine your pur hase and are assured of satisfaction before investing your money. Because: Your home merchant i always ready and willing to make ight any error or any defective aricle purchased of him. Because: When you are sick or for my reason it is necessary for you to ask for credit you can go to the local merchant. Could you ask it of a mailorder house?

Because: If a merchant is willing extend you credit you should give him the credit of your cash trade. Because: Your home merchant pays local taxes and exerts every effort to build and better your market, thus increasing both the value of city and country property .

Because: The mail-order merchant oes not lighten your tax or in any vay help the value of your property. Because: The mail order merchant does nothing for the benefit of markets or real estate values.
